DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 38-41 and 43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The declaration refers to the specification filed as 09/032,724. This application (09/032,724) does not provide support for the step of rotating such that a bubble agitates the fluid in the container.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 33-37, 42, 44 and 45 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

4. While the examiner agrees that the portion of the specification incorporated by reference refers to bubbles agitating fluid, "rotating the holding device about the rotational axis such that the bubble agitates the fluid" is not described.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 1723

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
